der Set for March 27.

The Second Battalion, Second Infantry, of the District National Guard, in the opening drill of the week at the Center Market Armery last night, was put through the company drills in close order by Maj. Clarence V. Sayer.

The staff was composed of Lieut. W. Brown, adjutant, and Lieut. Henry Wingate, quartermaster. Three companies took part, as follows: Company E. in command of Lieut. H. C. Earnshaw; Company F. under command of Capt. W. H. Beckstein, and Company G. in command of Capt. H. E. Burton.

The inspection in heavy marching order, which had been ordered for last night, was postponed to March 37, owing to the awarding this week of insignia for rifle qualifications and prizes for the rifle matches which took place last fall at the Congress Heights range. The prizes will be awarded to-morrow night.
